

About Using the Library ②

Using Copiers//////////

You may copy library materials within the limits of copyright law using the in-library copiers.

You can use your student ID points or the coin-operated copy machine.

※Please fill out a "Copy Request Form" when making copies.

Reference Services//////////

At the 1st floor reference counter, staff can answer your questions and help with finding materials, using the database, or any other library-related issues.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL) //////////

If the library doesn't have the material you need, you can request a photocopy or the original from other libraries.

Ask at the reference counter for details.

Book Request System//////////

If there are materials you would like the library to acquire, fill out the "Book Request Form" and submit it at the 1st floor main counter.

※Please note your request may not always be approved.

After Looking at Materials//////////

After taking materials from the shelves, please place them on the nearby return shelves.

The Library staff will return them to their original locations.

How to Find Materials

OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog) //////////

OPAC is a system to search for materials owned by the university library. It can be used on dedicated PCs in the library or on smartphones.

E-books//////////

You can read materials such as career guides, certification prep books, and travel guides on your PC or smartphone.

Databases//////////

From the library's website, you can access newspaper articles, corporate information, legal data, and more.

Academic Repository (STARS) //////////

You can search and view full texts of bulletins and theses published within the university.
